

ARE YOU READY?

Right now, hiring new talent might not be on your agenda. But it should be.

There's a skills shortage coming. It will only get harder to find the right person. Are you ready?

Small and medium sized businesses need to be proactive. Do you know where to recruit top talent? Do you know how to select the brightest employees? Have you thought about hiring a skilled immigrant?

Attend a complimentary workshop at your local community college. Learn practical strategies and techniques for sourcing, interviewing and hiring the brightest immigrant talent. Improve your cultural competence. Workshops are free for a limited time!

Smart businesses focus on the future.
Are you ready?

HURRY! LIMITED SEATS

Who can attend?

This workshop is open to anyone with hiring responsibilities across Ontario. Small and medium sized businesses are especially encouraged to take advantage of this free program. Workshops are only free for a limited time!

What will I learn?

By the time you're finished, you will be able to effectively source, screen resumes, interview and hire skilled immigrants.

How will I learn?

Experienced diversity facilitators will use videos, role-play and participative learning techniques that will give you hands-on, practical experience.

When and where?

Workshops are being held all over Ontario through its community colleges. To register for one near you, visit www.collegeconnect.on.ca/areyouready.
